September 20 through 23, 2001

NC State Friends of the Library To Hold Twelfth Annual Book Sale

The Friends of the Library of North Carolina State University will hold its twelfth annual Book Sale from September 20 through 23, 2001, on the ground floor, East Wing, of the D. H. Hill Library. The general public can attend the Book Sale on September 21 and 22 from 9:30 A.M. until 6:00 P.M., and on September 23 (Sunday) from 12:00 to 4:00 P.M.

Buyers will find an excellent assortment of books ranging from children's books and best-selling novels to fiction classics and engineering, science, fine arts, and humanities texts. Other items for sale include music CDs, movie videos, posters, and greeting cards. Proceeds benefit the NCSU Libraries Preservation Endowment.

The preview sale on September 20 is for the 1,200 Friends members only, who will receive tickets. Friends members attending the preview sale will also have the opportunity to have books from their own libraries appraised by rare-book dealer Bill Loeser, one of the owners of The Bookshop, Inc., from Chapel Hill, N.C. Each member can bring a maximum of three books. Loeser will also demonstrate how to use the Internet to help value library collections.

The D. H. Hill Library is located on the NC State Brickyard, near the intersection of Hillsborough and Gardner streets, across from the Wachovia Bank building. It is wheelchair accessible. For more information, please call the Friends of the Library at (919) 515-2841, Monday through Friday, 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.
