Booker Award Winner John Coetzee To Give Special Reading on October 5, 2001

The NCSU Friends of the Library and the Culture and Animals Foundation are cosponsoring a special reading by acclaimed writer and two-time Booker Award winner John M. Coetzee on October 5, 2001, from 8:00 to 9:00 P.M.

Coetzee will present "Disgrace, A Reading," which is being held in conjunction with the opening of the NCSU Libraries' exhibit "An American Philosopher: The Career of Tom Regan." The reading is free and open to the public and will be held at the Four Points Hotel across from Crabtree Valley Mall at 4501 Creedmoor Road (U.S. 70 West) in Raleigh. For more information about the reading, call the Friends of the Library, Monday through Friday, 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., at (919) 515-2841, or visit the Web site <http://www.lib.ncsu.edu/administration/fol/events.html>.

The Regan exhibit is at the D. H. Hill Library and runs from October 5, 2001, to January 15, 2002. It is free and open to the public. The D. H. Hill Library is located on the NC State Brickyard, near the intersection of Hillsborough and Gardner streets, across from the Wachovia Bank building. It is wheelchair accessible.
